

REMOVAL TO BETTER QUARTERS.

The increase of the work makes necessary a removal of our office to more commodious and better lighted quarters at the address given above. We praise the Lord for the increased opportunities for usefulness in his service, which this change seems to imply. Unite with us in rendering thanks, and in the prayer that from the new building

"The light – the radiance from the cross,
The depth of love revealing," may shine more and more until perfect day; and that "Still new beauties we may see
