FROM RUSSIA TO PALESTINE.

In consequence of the enforcing of an edict unfavorable to the Jews by the government of Russia, vast numbers of that people are emigrating to Brazil and to Palestine. The matter has attracted world-wide attention through the secular press, so that it is only needful to make mention of it in a general way as another step in the direction that all events are pointing – to the fulfilment of God's prophecy concerning the events of the Day of the Lord in which we are living.
