

When the Crowning Day Shall Come

G. M. Bills

M. L. McPhail

When the crowning day shall come, Hallelujah.
And the angel of the harvest shall bring.
All His jewels that are sealed in their foreheads,
To the grand eternal home of the King;
Oh what radiance will light ev'ry feature,
That was once with thorns of suffering scarred;
And what majesty shall crown the New Creature,
When the everlasting gates are unbarred.

CHORUS

When the crowning day shall come, Hallelujah.
And the saints of God are gathered above,
Will we join the shining ranks of the faithful.
Shall we wear the blessed seal of His love?

When the crowning day shall come, Hallelujah
And His loving smile with rapture shall thrill
All the holy ones who stand with the Bridegroom,
On the heights of Zion's glorious hill;
Then the eyes that see the King in His beauty,
Nevermore a tear of sorrow shall shed;
While the feet that trod the thorn path of duty,
Shall the heights of immortality tread.

When the crowning day shall come, Hallelujah.
And the saints the judgment scepter shall take,

All earth's tyrants and their schemes of oppression,
As a cursed potter's vessel to break;
Then the slaves of error, freed from their blindness,
Shall with gladness leave their bondage and strife,
And be welcomed by the Spirit of Kindness,
To the ever flowing waters of life.

Oh, the crowning day shall come, Hallelujah
'Tis this blessed hope that filleth my soul;
It is now my daily aim and ambition
To be pure, and free from worldly control'
Well assured of an eternal salvation,
If the path of consecration I tread,
I am looking for my blest recreation,
In the likeness of my heavenly Head.

last CHORUS

When the crowning day shall come, Hallelujah.
And the saints of God are gathered above,
We shall join the shining ranks of the faithful.
We shall wear the blessed seal of His love.

Copyright, 1895, by M. L. McPhail. Used by permission.
